717 Credit Union 2020/2021 Scholarship Program offering twelve (12) $1,500 post-secondary scholarships (Deadline: March 1, 2020) Applications can be found at www.717cu.com
University-based Merit Scholarships-Four university-based merit scholarships are available to graduating high school students planning to attend the largest universities located within the communities we serve: one scholarship each for Youngstown State University, Kent State University-Main Campus, Kent State University Branches (one scholarship to be awarded from applicants to Trumbull, Salem, or Stark Brach Campuses), and the University of Akron. Applicants must have an account with 7 17 or be the legal dependent of a 7 17 Member. Recipients will be chosen by the financial aid departments of the respective universities based on the applicant's grade point average, school and community involvement, and letters of recommendation. The university scholarships are non-renewable awards.

Credit Union Spirit Scholarships

As a financial cooperative, Members' resources are pooled to the financial benefit of the collective membership. In the spirit of the credit union movement's "people helping people" philosophy, 7 17 offers four Credit Union Spirit Scholarships. These scholarships are also university-specific and apply to the same universities as the University-based Merit scholarships (Youngstown State University, Kent State University-Main Campus, Kent State University Branches, and the University of Akron). They are also selected by the financial aid departments of the respective universities, but take financial need into account along with minimum merit requirements. Applicants for the Credit Union Spirit Scholarships are not required to be Members of 7 17 at the time of application, but must become a Member to receive the scholarship. If the applicant is not a 7 17 Member upon being selected, 7 17 will open a savings account for the recipient to establish membership.

cha-ching Teen Club Scholarships

Two cha-ching Teen scholarships are available for any post-secondary education, e.g., any accredited university or trade school. Applicants must be Members of the 7 17 cha-ching Teen Club. Recipients will be chosen by a five-Member panel, which may include representatives, none of whom have a relative applying for this scholarship. Recipients will be selected based on response to an essay question. Student grade point average……., school/community involvement, and letters of recommendation may also be considered if the essay scoring results in a tie.

the edge Scholarships

7 17 offers two scholarships to 7 17 Members between the ages of 18 and 25, who have the edge account, and pursuing a post-secondary education at any accredited trade school or university. Members with the edge can apply for this scholarship each year they are pursuing a post-secondary education. The recipient will be chosen by a five-Member panel whose composition will be similar to the cha-ching scholarship review panel. Recipients will be selected based on response to any essay question. Student grade point average, school and community involvement, and letters of recommendation may also be considered if the essay scoring results in a tie.

Unlike any of our other scholarship awards, edge members can apply each year they are enrolled in school. Enrollment will be verified prior to awarding the scholarship.

Caring.com is a leading senior care resource for family caregivers seeking information and support as they care for aging parents, spouses and other loved ones. We have been featured by AARP, The Administration for Community Living, The National Legal Resource Center, and Forbes, as well as referenced by many governmental agencies and organizations across the Internet.

A group of senior care advocates who have had conversations with the caregiver community, are finding that more and more high school and college students are taking on the role of caregiver for aging loved ones. To help support these students, we have made available scholarships that can provide financial assistance. Please apply for the scholarships at:

- https://www.caring.com/caregivers/scholarships-for-student-caregivers
- https://www.caring.com/caregivers/scholarships-for-student-caregivers#the-caring-com-scholarship

We would appreciate the opportunity to collaborate with you to share this anywhere on your website, as it would be of tremendous value for students who are juggling caregiving and educational responsibilities.

 Dean's Scholarship is renewable for four years. You must achieve a 3.0 GPA or higher and maintain continuous full-time enrollment at Kent State Trumbull.*
 Gold, Silver & Bronze Scholarships may be renewed for an additional year if you achieve a 3.0 GPA or higher and earn 24 or more credit hours during your Freshman year.*

These scholarships can be combined with other privately funded and Honors scholarships. However, all require full-time enrollment at Kent State Trumbull for the 2019-2020 academic year (12 or more credit hours per semester). Yearly tuition at one of Kent State University's regional campuses is $5,664.

During the fall semester of 2019, Sigma Phi Epsilon will again offer Balanced Man Scholarships (BMS) totaling $2,500 to students at Cleveland State. We believe that recognizing students who exhibit balance and all-around excellence is one way to promote this important ideal. Therefore, we are offering $2500 in scholarships at Cleveland State University for the 2019-2020 academic school year.

The process:

- Apply online.
- The scholarships are based on merit.
- All applications will be reviewed and semi-finalists will be selected by a selection committee.
- All semi-finalists will be asked to attend a 30-minute interview within one month after the application deadline.
- All finalists and their parents will be invited to an awards banquet.
- Application Deadline: August 15, 2019

To be eligible for a scholarship you must:

- Be a full-time undergraduate student enrolled at CSU during the 2019-2020 academic year.

- Be a male applicant with a minimum 3.00 GPA.

Qualified students may access our on-line BMS application at: www.csuohio.edu/SigEp

The Union Plus Scholarship Program

Since 1991, the Union Plus Scholarship Program has awarded more than $4.3 million to students of working families who want to begin or continue their post-secondary education.

Over 2,900 families have benefited from our commitment to higher education. The Union Plus Scholarship Program is offered through the Union Plus Education Foundation, supported in part by contributions from the provider of the Union Plus Credit Card. (You do not need to be a Union Plus Credit Card holder to apply for this scholarship.)

The Facts

EligIbility

Current and retired members of participating unions, their spouses and their dependent children (as defined by IRS regulations). At least one year of continuous union membership by the applicant, applicant's spouse or parent (if applicant is a dependent). The one-year membership minimum must be satisfied by May 31, 2019.

Evaluation Criteria

This is a competitive scholarship. Applicants are evaluated according to academic ability, social awareness, financial need and appreciation of labor. A GPA of 3.0 or higher is recommended. The required essays can account for up to half your total score. Scholarship applicants are judged by a committee of impartial post-secondary educators

Application Timeline

Applications are available starting in mid-June, and a complete application must be received on or before 12:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) on January 31, 2019. Applications received after this deadline will not be considered.

Scholarship Award Amounts

Amounts range from $500 to $4,000. These one-time cash awards are for study beginning in the Fall of 2019. Students may re-apply each year.

SCHOLARSHIP MANAGEMENT SYSTEM: Go to comm-foundation.org

- Create a log in and password and complete one general application (for most opportunities this is all that is necessary).
- It is imperative that the applicants use an email address that will still be active after they graduate high school.
- Then the system will populate a list of scholarship opportunities in which they MAY qualify.
- The applicant should click on the name of the scholarship and read the description in order to see if they truly meet the criteria. If so, click apply.
- In some cases, they could be directed to a second phase of questions, if so complete the questions.

The applicants have the ability to save the application in order to review, or complete at a later date before submitting.

Transcripts and letters of reference are both requested by the applicant by furnishing the name and email of the person that will be submitting these documents.

The DEADLINE for submitting applications is: Friday, March 1, 2019
