Interims for the 2nd Quarter

Interims will be going home on Friday, Dec. 1st. If you feel your child can improve in one or more areas, please address this with your child, check Progress Book for missing homework assignments or low quiz/test scores, and develop a plan with your child on how to achieve higher scores during the second half of this grading period. The end of the second nine-week grading period is January 12, 2024. Parents if you need access to Progress Book, please call the office.

Classroom Christmas Parties

Niles Intermediate students will have their classroom holiday parties on Wednesday, December 20th from 2:00 – 2:45.

Niles Intermediate Home and School will provide snacks and refreshments for the festivities. If you would like to donate an item to each classmate, non-edible items such as pencils, erasers, stickers, etc. are encouraged and much needed in classrooms. Home baked items are prohibited due to our high population of student allergies. Each classroom has been assigned parent volunteers to oversee games/activities for the holiday party.

Winter Break

Last day of classes for students is Wed, Dec. 20. Classes will resume on Wednesday, January 3, 2024. Have a wonderful, fun-filled, and safe winter break with your child.
